

Sexual Misconduct and Title IX

Meredith College is committed to providing a safe and positive living, learning and working environment. Members of the campus community are expected to treat others with integrity and respect and to take responsibility for their actions. Meredith College will not tolerate sexual discipline in accordance with the College's Harassment and Non-Discrimination Policy and Procedures.

Wrongful allegation: It is a violation of this policy to bring a knowingly false complaint under this policy. However, failure to prove a claim of sexual misconduct does not alone constitute proof of a false and /or malicious accusation. Individuals who make frivolous or false reports shall not be deemed to be acting in good faith.
